

Religion and Sustainable Development – Emerging Challenges and Opportunities Ahead of the 2024 G20 Summit in Brazil

A Colloquium organized by

Tokai University Research Institute for Environment and Sustainability
(TRIES)

G20 Interfaith Forum

Regent's Park College, University of Oxford

Oxford Journal of Law and Religion

International Center for the Study of Law and Religion, BYU Law School

International Academy for Multicultural Cooperation

Saturday, 20 January 1:00-5:30 pm

Venue: Building 2 (Lecture Hall), Shinagawa Campus, Tokai University
2-3-23 Takanawa, Minato-ku, Tokyo 108-8619 (Shinagawa Campus map attached)

Search route from local location

Registration Link: <https://www.g20interfaith.org/2024-japan-registration>

Speakers include:

Prof. Naoto Yoshikawa (Tokai University, Japan)

Prof. W. Cole Durham (Brigham Young University)

Prof. Michael K. Young (Texas A&M University)

Dr. Peter Petkoff (Oxford University)

David Burrowes (Prime Minister's Deputy Special Envoy on Freedom of Religion or Belief, UK)

Rt. Rev. Yoshinobu Miyake (Superior General, Konko Church, Japan)

Matius Ho, Executive Director (Leimena Institute, Indonesia)

Nobuyuki Asai (Soka Gakkai International (SGI))

Prof. Jonathan Luckhurst (Soka University, Tokyo)

Junko Hayashi (ARI, IF20)

Simultaneous Interpretation Provided

OXFORD JOURNAL OF LAW AND RELIGION

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS